Jeremiah 29:11

I am a warrior

The Bible introduces the concept of woman with two words, in Genesis 2:18 which states, "I will make a helper suitable for him." In the Hebrew language the phrase used is ezer kenegdo. While a helper is typically seen as someone having a secondary role, helping the primary figure. However "Ezer" in Hebrew carries a much deeper meaning. It implies rescue, to save and to be strong. It conveys the idea of empowering someone in ways they cannot empower themselves. Throughout the Bible we encounter this word "ezer" 21 times. God uses this word to describe Himself in relationship, with Israel. It is inaccurate to suggest that God played a secondary role to Israel; instead He supported, assisted and strengthened Israel in ways she could not do for herself.

The Hebrew word Kenegdo means opposite as to him or corresponding as to him. A woman is no better or less than the man. Man and woman are equally and uniquely created, a perfect fit.

In the biblical narrative, the word God chose to describe women is a word he uses to describe Himself. As a woman, you not only have a place in this world. You have unique qualities that give you a significant role in the life that God has placed you in. You not only have a place in God's story. You sit at his table from the beginning in God's grand narrative.

We can divide the bible in three ways the word "ezer" is used. Consistently "ezer" is referred in military context. The "ezer" is a warrior.

You are a warrior.

Ezer used for the woman.

Genesis 2:18

Genesis 2:20

Ezer used for nations to whom Israel appealed for military aid.

Isaiah 30:5

Ezekiel 12:14

Daniel 11:34

Deuteronomy 33:7

Deuteronomy 33:26

Deuteronomy 33:29

Psalms 20:2

Psalms 33:20

Psalms 70:5

Psalms 89:19

Psalms 115:9

Psalms 115:10

Psalms 115:11

Psalms 121:1

Psalms 121:2

Psalms 124:8

Psalms 146:5

A warrior of faith needs an armor

be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his might. Put in the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world's rulers of the darkness of this age, and against the spiritual forces of wickedness in the heavenly places. Therefore put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. Stand therefore, having the utility belt of truth buckled around your waist, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness, and having fitted your feet with the preparation of the Good News of peace, above all, taking up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one. And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; with all prayer and requests, praying at all times in the Spirit.

Ephesians 6:10-18
